THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XVI.—40. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17, 1879 $5.00 PER ANNUM

FROM OHIO.

THE GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

The Situation Yesterday Morning: and the Latest News in the Evening---Foster's Majority 14,000.

Baltimore Sun, 16th.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—To-day has swept away the last vestige of hope for the Democracy of Ohio as regards the result of yesterday's election. Up to noon to-day some fought against the overwhelming reports of last night, and hoped that a majority in the Legislature was left them, or at least the control of a house, by which they could check the work of undoing that which has been done in the past two years. But even that hope is now gone.

The most sanguine of the party figurers to-night upon the reports received from Columbus give up everything, and say that the Republicans will have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and amounting on joint ballot to probably twelve or fifteen. The only comfort drawn by them from to-day's developments is the fact that Foster's majority for Governor will probably not be so great as was last night indicated. The reports last night received were mostly from the cities, and it now appears that it is in these that Republican gains have been largest. From the indications to-night it is probable that Foster's plurality will not be over 20,000, and indeed it may fall to 15,000.

In Hamilton county every man on the Republican ticket is elected, the majority ranging from 1,000 to 4,000. Williams, the colored man, is elected to the Legislature by a majority of 1,024. He is counted one of the most intelligent of the legislators elected in this county. The cause of this revolution in sentiment, as indicated last night, is two-fold—the dissolution of the greenback and socialistic parties, and the unwillingness of business men to support Gen. Ewing's financial views. The total vote in the State will probably be about 630,000. From present indications it is probable that the straight greenback vote, which two years ago was 32,000, will not be more than 8,000.

LATE DISPATCHES.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 16.—No news of importance has been received to-day by either party except that the Republican committee concedes the defeat of Waldridge, the Republican candidate for Senator in the eighth district. This leaves the Republicans eight majority in the Senate and certainly thirty-five majority on a joint ballot.

This injunction following the injunction granted by the Circuit Court at Frankfort, stops all lotteries of Simmons & Dickinson in Kentucky.

The Stray Balloon.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Oct. 15.—Thomas Lloyd, a compositor on the Times, saw a balloon early this morning. He watched it for over an hour, and called the attention of a telegraph operator to it. It was up very high, and the car could be seen, but no person. It was seen in the southeast and traveled south slowly, rising and falling in its course. Numbers of others claim they saw the balloon.

Bond Robbery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Bonds to the value of $28,100 were stolen yesterday from a safe in the office of Merritt Trimble, a well known iron merchant in coal and iron exchange, by three strangers who called apparently on business. The loss was not discovered for several hours after their departure

The Apaches Taking a Hand.

GALVESTON, October 15.—A dispatch to the News from San Antonia reports that parties of well armed Apaches are going south from Mescolero ageney. All posts are notified to be in readiness and concentrate their troops in case of necessity.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 16.—General Ord received the following: "Fort Concho, October 15th. Colonel Hatch, commanding the district of New Mexico, informs me that large bodies of well armed Apaches are going south toward Texas. They are probably renegades from the Indian territory and Mexico. I have arranged to intercept them and to reinforce and concentrate the forces when necessary.

Signed, GENERAL GRIERSON."

More Rascality.

MAYVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The weather is fine.

Courtney's boat was sawed in two during the night while awaiting the decision of the referee.

A Yankee Russian Admiral.

Springfield Republican.

How a Meredith boy became a Russian admiral makes an entertaining romance. The son of Rev. Simons Finley Williams, a celebrated Massachusetts clergyman, called to Meredith in 1790, ran away from a Laconia employer because the latter thrashed him for spending his evenings with the girls. He took also $300 belonging to his chastiser, who pursued him to Portland, reaching there two days after the youngster had shipped on a Russian bark. The vessel was attacked by pirates, but the boy of seventeen, with the assistance of two sailors, mounted an old swivel, filled it with iron scraps and sank two boat loads of buccaneers, thus saving his ship.

For this, the Czar trained young Williams up in the royal navy, of which he became the head, his title being Count Zincherschoff. He subsequently visited this country and paid the Laconia man his $300 and interest, all in gold, saying he should return to Russia an honest man.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, October 15.—Weather still warm and dry. Light rain last Friday, but done no good towards starting branches and small creeks to running. The Cape Fear was readily forded at Lillington last week which is an unusual occurrence even in midsummer.

Politics are dead for the present through this section, but will revive in ample time, as it is a long time till the election.

All the boys (and some of the girls) that could raise the stamps are in your city attending the fair. You will see them.

There is really nothing new since I wrote you last, and even if there was I dont expect you could find room for it, being so pressed for space to detail the doings at the fair.

Hope you all a pleasant time. The first three days are lovely; hope you will continue so to the end. H.

ORANGE.

SOUTH LOWELL, Oct. 15.—Weather warm and dry.

Trade is very dull. Old crop tobacco is all sold and the new is hardly on the market yet. No new corn in yet.

There is very little political news. The people seem to think that Tilden will be our next Presidential candidate.

R. L. Walker and William Monk had each a tobacco barn burned a few days since.

A revival of religion is progressing at the Presbyterian church at Little River, in this county.

The corn crop is very short. Tobacco is nearly all housed. Some few farmers have commenced seeding wheat.

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter."

THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST TAKEN FROM THE STATE PRESS.

A Bold Thief and a Lively Chase—Blowing Gabriel's Horn—A Double Crop.

A LIVELY THIEF.

Wilmington Review, 15th.

A bold robbery was committed on Front street in the crockery store of Mr. A. A. Hartsfield, about 11 o'clock this morning, under the following circumstances: Mr. Hartsfield was in the back part of his store waiting on a customer when he heard the rollers of a glass door which encloses his plated silverware in the front part of the store moved back. Attracted by the noise he turned quickly around, but only in time to see a colored individual dart out of the door with a box in his hand. Dropping everything at the instant, Mr. Hartsfield gave chase immediately, calling out lustily, however, 'Stop thief!' The pursued and pursuer ran up Front street to the corner of Princess, where the individual with the thieving proclivities darted diagonally across Princess street to the vacant lot just west of Evans' block and proceeded at full speed, scaling fences as he went, until he reached the stables of Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co., just south of the postoffice; here as he was in the act of scaling the fence in the rear of the latter named building, or just as he landed on the other side of the fence at the back door of the postoffice, he was grabbed by a son of Mr. Hartsfield together with another young man who had joined in the chase and escorted safely to the guard-house where he was made to disgorge his ill-gotten goods, which consisted of half a dozen plated silver knives, half a dozen silver forks, half a dozen table spoons, besides other articles amounting in value to the sum of $12.

After reaching the guard room the prisoner was noticed to tear in pieces a bit of paper which he had taken from his pocket and cram the same into his mouth, which he commenced masticating and endeavored to swallow, but Janitor Poisson was a little too quick for him, and succeeded with the assistance of others in throwing the prisoner to the floor and then forcing him to eject the bits of paper from his mouth, which upon being put together were found to be a discharge from the South Carolina Penitentiary, which the prisoner had received from the Superintendent after serving a term of two years upon the charge of grand larceny. The fellow gave his name as Melvin Moore. He is about 25 years of age and claims to be originally from Augusta, Georgia. He was locked up in a cell and will await an interview with the Mayor at half-past nine o'clock to-morrow morning, after which we will tell our readers something more about it.

STORMING JERICHO.

Charlotte Democrat.

The colored people at some of their protracted meetings in the eastern counties have a new or novel mode of worship, or of raising money—they call it "Storming Jericho." They form a ring and walk around a table at which the Bishop sits. As they march, singing and shouting, they have to put some money in his hat. When they go around for the seventh time a horn is blown, and at this signal they all fall down, and lay as if dead, when at another given signal they all rise and go through the same ceremony. The latter part is called the blowing of "Gabriel's Horn," or the Judgment day. In this part of the State they have "Holy Walks" and "Cake Walks," and enjoy themselves generally in a "high-falutin" manner—sometimes to the great annoyance of persons who want to sleep. While learning to read and write they ought to be taught what true religion and worship are.

A DOUBLE CROP.

Goldsboro Messenger.

We learn from our excellent friend, Dr. E. H. Hornaday, of Greene county, that Mr. B. S. Sheppard, who resides in the Willow Green section, has an apple tree in his orchard which bore a full crop of early fruit, which was consumed by his family in June; and as soon as the tree was freed from the June crop, the same tree reblossomed and is now hanging full with the second crop, which will mature in a few days ready for use. Strange but nevertheless true.

NEGRO MEETINGS.

Washington North State Press.

We are informed that two white men, names unknown, are holding meetings out in the neighborhood of Tranter's Creek, endeavoring to get up negro emigrants for Kansas. Such instigators of meanness should be dealt with in the severest manner. If the colored people were to be benefited, we would say let all go who want to and bid them God speed, but when we know suffering etc., awaits them, we cannot but look with contempt on all efforts to mislead them. A scheme is on foot in our town to get them to Liberia, and one old man told us only a day or two ago that they had promised him land, etc., and that he had concluded to go until he found out he would have to go to sea and then he backed out, as he was afraid he would never get back, and this is the condition of things that are stirred up among the ignorant class of our colored citizens.

A CAREFUL CITIZEN.

Washington North State Press.

We hear of a citizen of our town who lost his store key overboard last week, and in order to be certain that the place could be found he made a long mark on a vessel lying at the wharf at the exact place where it went overboard, intending to search for it when the boat moved out of the way, not for a moment thinking of the vessel carrying his mark with her when she left, and now the place and key are both lost. Next time be certain of your mark, then go ahead.

LOST BOY FOUND.

Charlotte Observer.

About ten days ago Mr. A. L. Clark, at the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, received information from his family who reside in Salisbury that his son, twelve years old, had disappeared from home. Nothing was heard of him, and Mr. Clark was in great distress. Day before yesterday he received information through the manager of the telegraph office at Richmond that there was a boy there who gave his name as Clark, and claimed that he had been kidnapped in Salisbury and brought there in a trunk. Mr. Clark had him returned by express and has received information that he had arrived in safety, but the mystery of his disappearance is unexplained. Mr. Clark is disposed to think the boy became restless and tried to make his way to Greensboro, his former home, and that some one helped him on to Richmond. He has not yet heard the boy's story and hence is unable to arrive at any definite conclusion about the matter.

PUNISHING THE WRONG MAN.

Greensboro Patriot.

The case of Stipe, of Wilkins, tried last week in the Federal Court, on a charge of concealing twenty-eight barrels of whisky, has met with no little comment and excited no little indignation. Stipe was an employee of two men, who owned these twenty-eight barrels of whisky which were discovered stored away in a cellar, on Saturday, where they remained as seized by the officer who made the discovery. When they went Monday, morning to make the seizure, the whisky had been removed, and Stipe was indicted for concealing it. The evidence showed that he not only did not own twenty-eight barrels of whisky but was too poor to own one, and the inquiry suggested itself how did it happen that he was indicted, simply being an employee, and the owners of the liquor, who are well known, remain unmolested.

Stipe was, very properly acquitted, but still he has been put to great annoyance and expense by this prosecution, while the really guilty parties travel around with impunity.

ROUGH ON AN OFFICER.

Greensboro Patriot.

Judge Dick was so much disgusted with the wild swearing of one Philpot, a special revenue officer, last week, that he pronounced him the most abandoned case he ever met in Court, ordered the Marshal to take charge of him and hold him under a bond of $500 from day to day as a perjurer, and instructed the Clerk to enter a nol pros in every case in which he was the principal witness.

VAUGHNTOWN RAMPANT.

Wadesboro Herald.

From reliable information we learn that Clem Griggs and two of the Vaughn boys got into a fight last Sunday. Griggs was shot in the leg, and received dangerous wounds about the head, from the effects of which it is thought he will die. It is reported that the Vaughns have fled. From what we can learn, the difficulty arose about a young lady. They had been carrying pistols for one another for some time. The parties are all from "Vaughntown." There will have to be stretching of "hemp" to regulate things hereabouts, and the sooner it is done the better it will be for the county.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

Wadesboro Herald.

Some one entered Mr. J. B. Burns' sleeping apartment Monday night, and took from his pants pockets his pocket book. After leaving the room, they found that the book contained nothing but notes, and they laid it on the window sill of his room. Mr. B. saw the person, who was dressed in women's clothes, and supposed it was some of his family. It's time for some one to use lead to advantage on these midnight burglars. Give them no quarters is our advice.

The Agricultural Society.

The North Carolina Agricultural Society met at the Hall of the House of Representatives on Thursday evening, October 16th, 1879, President Thomas M. Holt in the Chair, and C. B. Denson, Secretary.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

Colonel Holt was called upon, and responded in a feeling and grateful speech of acceptance.

Mr. P. A. Wiley moved the re-election of the Vice-Presidents for the State at large, with the exception of Governor T. J. Jarvis as ex officio vice-president in place of the former Governor—Z. B. Vance.

The President elect assumed the chair. The officers as nominated were elected.

Richard H Battle, jr, nominated Capt C B Denson as Secretary, who was unanimously elected.

On motion of Capt Thigpen, P A Wiley, Esq., was also unanimously elected Treasurer.

The Secretary read a communication from Col R R Bridgers, upon the importance of irrigation.

Capt J R Thigpen moved that the communication read be published in the papers.

The President called Gov Jarvis to the chair, and he then called the attention of the society to the request of Dr LeDoux in his address for advice as to the best method of promptly securing samples of fertilizers for analysis during the current season. Discussion ensued, and various opinions were expressed.

On motion of Maj W H Bagley, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Society has heard the address of Prof LeDoux, at its present session, with pleasure; and that while we are prepared to make no suggestions, we are satisfied that he has in the analization of fertilizers acted with all the promptness which the circumstances allowed, and that he is entitled to the thanks of this society and of the farmers of the State; and that we leave the whole subject, with confidence, to the wisdom of his department.

"Do you know," remarked a prominent gentleman to us a few days ago, "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is really a good thing. My daughter would have me use it for a bad cough and it did cure me."

Beautifiers.

Ladies, you cannot make fair skin rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes with all the cosmetics of France or beautifiers of the world while in poor health, and nothing will give you such good health, strength, buoyant spirits and beauty as Hop Bitters. A trial is certain proof. See another column.

THURSDAY AT THE FAIR.

THE LARGEST CROWD YET ASSEMBLED ON THE GROUNDS!

The Raleigh Light Infantry Win Every Premium at the Shooting Match—To-Day's Programme.

Yesterday was the "boss" day at the Fair. A tremendous crowd had collected upon the streets, and at about 9 o'clock they commenced moving toward the grounds, and in a short time a Sabbath stillness reigned throughout the streets. Many of our prominent merchants closed their places of business in order to allow their employees to have a chance at the Fair.

The Bingham Cadets, Raleigh Light Infantry and the Durham Light Infantry passed up Fayetteville street and wended their way to the depot, where they boarded the train and were soon on the grounds.

At eleven o'clock there had assembled fully ten thousand souls within the Society's inclosure. Everybody was enjoying themselves and the best of good order and sociability prevailed.

THE DURHAM MILITARY.

This is the first time this new and handsome company has made its appearance in our city as a body. They are a splendid looking body of men, and were the recipients of many compliments.

The Raleigh Light Infantry presented their usual handsome appearance.

The Bingham Cadets, as every one knows, are fine young men and excellently drilled.

IN THE PRESS ROOM

a large crowd is constantly collected, consisting of the press gang, the marshals and officers of the Fair. Everything good the heart need desire is to be found spread out here, free to those admitted. Among other things donated and placed here are two kegs of fine wine, donated by Col. Wharton J. Green to the use of the aforesaid "gang," etc.

This wine certainly fulfilled the purpose for which it was intended, for it was soon "press"-ed into use and all enjoyed it greatly. A donation of fine cigars, by W. C. & A. B. Stronach, of this city, which were smoked with great enjoyment. Many other good things, which will be hereafter noticed, were relished greatly. Those who have so kindly treated the press, has the NEWS' sincere thanks.

FOWL SWEARING.

A Chinese Woman Sworn by the Decapitation of a Chicken.

San Francisco Post.

The Ah Pak Chinese habeas corpus case, an application to release Sing Fung, a young Chinawoman, from the clutches of a hag known as Si Que, in whose custody she was alleged to be, was resumed in the county court this morning. The announcement made several days ago that the ceremony of swearing the witness would be performed in the Chinese fashion, attracted quite a crowd to the court. P. Cummings appeared for respondent and W. H. Chamberlin for the petitioner. Mr. Cummings argued at length against the barbarous method of swearing witnesses proposed by the counsel, and quoted extensively from "Chambers' Encyclopedia" to show that almost every nation, modern and and ancient, invariably insisted on people of other nationalities conforming to their mode of administering oaths. Toward the end of his quotation Mr. Cummings got a fearful set-back when he quoted that it had always been the custom among the nations to prescribe any form of oath which would make it more solemn or obligatory upon the witness. While Mr. Cummings was pegging away and stuffing the court and spectators with encyclopedic lore, he frequently stopped to comment. Judge Wright had been so many years having law from the dryest of statutes and decisions fired at him, that Mr. Cumming's encyclopedia afforded him a great literary treat, and he requested Mr. Cummings to confine himself to the text. Of course Mr. Cummings at once increased the number of his interjections, until at last a sentence from the encyclopedia was not turned that Mr. Cummings did not fire off in his comments.

Although frequently requested to confine himself to the text, the counsel could not be got to do it. Finally the Judge said: "Mr. Clerk, enter a flue of $50 for contempt of court." Mr. Cummings closed his encyclopedia and sat down without uttering a word. Judge Wright then directed Counselor Chamberlain to bring on his oath or something to that effect, and in response the attorney made a dive for the rear of the court room, and in a moment returned with a bucket, a huge butcher-knife and a sack made of matting, from which emanated a decidedly lively cackling.

"Your honor," said Mr. Chamberlain, "we don't want to spatter the blood around. How'll we prevent that?"

"I don't know," responded the court, drawing away out of range.

It was decided to cut open the bag, lay the matting on the floor near the witness stand, and then place the hatchet over it.

A lively colloquy ensued between the Chinese interpreter, the witness and the Chinaman, who insisted upon being sworn in the Oriental fashion. What it was all about was wholly incomprehensible to the court and the other barbarians present, but the manner of holding the pullet, of which there were three in the bag, about to be sacrificed to the interest of truth, appeared to have something to do with it. The woman, who at first did not want to be sworn in the genuine heathen style at all, finally concluded to decapitate the rooster, provided one of the Chinamen held it. This modification of the orthodox method, which requires the party affirming to touch the chicken before the decapitation, was accepted, and, after some further discussion, in which there was still further concession that the chicken's neck should be held against the rim of the bucket, the woman was sworn, the clerk propounding the following oath, which was translated by the interpreter:

"You do solemnly swear that the evidence you will give in the issue now pending shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and, if I tell a lie, may my life be as this chicken."

The response was a stroke of the knife, which only partially severed the chicken's head, whereupon the woman dropped the knife. The crowd of Chinamen earnestly gesticulated and protested that the oath wasn't properly administered, and the woman was compelled to repeat the stroke, the second time performing the decapitation. The Chinaman who held the chicken rammed it into a bucket, and held it there until its struggles had ceased. The woman then mounted the stand, but a skillful fire of cross-questions failed to elicit anything more than at the previous examination. She knew nothing of the whereabouts of Sing Fung, the missing maiden. Some of the questions she pretended not to understand, and in such cases she invariably broke out with, "Me no damme fool! Me take him Melica man's swearee; me cuttie chickee's head off; me tell him dam lie; me go down stairs, sabbe?" The interpreter in the case was accused by the indignant Mr. Cummings of being a sleuth-hound and an accomplished highbinder. As he did not give satisfaction it was decided to postpone the case until October 14, at 2 P. M. During the decapitation scene the fine imposed on Mr. Cummings was remitted.

ROSA BONHEUR'S RIVAL.

THE SADDENING EFFECTS OF A STUPID HUSBAND.

A Kaleidoscopic View of an Artist's Effort at a New England Farm Scene—Cruel Criticism.

Detroit Free Press.

"To every one is given at least one talent; comes one opportunity to make or mar a fortune." The words startled me. They kept repeating themselves in my mind. What was my talent? Had my golden moment passed? My brain whirled at the thought! I became restless. I got up and gazed from the window. How beautiful was nature. How—oh yes, I felt it burst upon me! My talent, my opportunity had arrived. I was destined to be an artist! A painter! To produce in startling reality nature's beauties upon canvas. I hardly slept that night. Aminidab said I was nervous. Ignorant man. He could not know the fire of genius burning in my soul. Well, to hurry along, I took the furniture from my little sewing room, set up my easel, and began my masterpiece. It was to be a rural scene; blue sky, mountains, cows, an old mill, etc. I would surprise my husband. Some day I would throw open the door, and with intense dramatic emotion cry, "behold!" He would be speechless with delight. I hardly ate or slept. I went about the house tattooed like a North American Indian on the eve of battle; a touch of chrome yellow on one cheek, a little ivory black on the other, with variations innumerable. As my picture neared completion, I experienced a satisfaction few may ever know. At last the happy day arrived. It was completed. I reveled in my success. How terrible to think that but for a word spoken by the wayside, I should have let pass the golden era of my life. The hour was come; grasping my husband's arm, I said in a voice shaken with emotion, "You have oft-times wondered at my absent-mindedness, my nervousness, but oh, you did not know the fever of art that was consuming me. You have been, you are, my deliverer. Behold the result!" and I threw open the door in a manner that would have done credit to a Ristori. Aminidab gazed, and his eyes opened wider and wider. His face flushed to the color of a fresh boiled lobster. He was fairly overcome.

"Well," I cried eagerly.

"You make that picture?"

"I did!" I exclaimed triumphantly. "Henceforth the wife of your bosom devotes her life to the divine art. Is it not fine?"

"Very—very fine; but could you not have found a pleasanter subject than a battle-field? Although that group of Indians to the right there—"

"Indians!"

"Yes, in the corner. Very natural, to be sure, but—"

"Indians! There are no Indians. That is a group of trees just tinted with the touch of autumn's finger."

"Oh yes! to be sure! I see. Surely I am growing nearsighted. A graveyard scene. Very touching. And whose monument is that in the center?"

"Monument? Graveyard scene?"

"Yes. But is it not rather unusual to see camels grazing in a country churchyard?"

"Camels? Where do you see camels?"

"Why, here. I would not have believed you could have got them so natural. And those five graves all in a row. Quite a family shuffled off the mortal coil. But you are excited. This painting has been too much for you."

"It is too much for me. That beautiful rustic mill a monument! And camels! You will kill me! They are cows! Don't you see they are cows? And those graves, as you call them, are moss-covered rocks. Such ignorance!"

"I beg your pardon, it is my poor eyes, and I see aright this time. That windmill is just the thing, but don't you think it should be nearer the mill? It's just a suggestion, you know. I may be wrong."

"You will make me desperate! A windmill! That lovely elm tree a windmill! Have you no touch of the divine genius in your soul? Have I encouraged this divine talent but to meet with scorn and sarcasm?"

"My dear Abeishes, draw it mild. I don't know much about the divine art, but you have done—yes, I will say it—better than I myself should under like circumstances. It really is a marvel; but knowing so little about it, it isn't strange if I mistook your effort for a battle or even a graveyard scene. My eyes are opened. I see it now. It is a Swiss scene—the Alps. Those glaciers are grand. But no; I must be wrong again, for surely you wouldn't put trees and cows on icebergs. No, my dear. It's all very pretty, but I give it up. What is it?"

"Oh, you miserable wretch? I've a great mind not to tell you. It's a beautiful New England farm scene. Any one could see. I'll never paint another picture! There!" And one stroke of the brush ruined my painting forever, and I marched Aminidab grimly from the room, slamming the door. What is my one talent?

A KENTUCKY FEUD.

Four Men of One Family Murdered in Grayson.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 13.—The Gazette's special from Grayson, Ky., says that Jesse Underwood was shot in the door of his father's house, known as "Fort Underwood," yesterday morning. The Holbrook party surrounded the house, threatening to kill anybody who would dare to bury Jesse's body, or rescue George, who is badly wounded, and who, with the women and children (all that remain of the unfortunate Underwood family), is inside of the house. George to-day sent word to the county judge praying for help and protection. The Governor has been appealed to, but has not responded. This is the fifth murder within the last three weeks in Carter county, four of the murdered men being Underwoods, and one member of the Holbrook tribe, and nothing has been done by any officer, from the Governor down to the county magistrate, to check this fearful bloodshed.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

KALLOCH, San Francisco's Mayor elect, objects to General Grant because he has, says Kalloch, "a fatal faculty for low company."

NOTHING has yet been learned of the fate of Professor Wise, the aeronaut, who with a companion, made an ascension from St. Louis some ten days ago.

THE Newark, N. J., city election today gives nearly two thousand five hundred majority for Fiedler, Democrat, over Macknet, Republican, for mayor. The German vote, heretofore Republican, was almost solid for Fiedler, the main issue being on a liberal construction of the Sunday law.

THE urgent necessity of carrying New York ought to be apparent to the Democratic mind. From this time on, the contest in that State will be waged with intensest vigor. The election of those candidates on which the Democracy are united will insure the State for the Democratic ticket next year.

THE exports of cotton from New York since September 1st add up two hundred and twenty-one thousand one hundred and two bales, against one hundred and eighteen thousand three hundred and seventy-five same time in 1878, or an increase of one hundred and two thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven bales.

THE Washington Post says: "Mr. Sherman may fancy that his boom is now in the ascendant, but he is destined to disappointment. He can never touch the popular heart, for he is lacking in every element of popularity. It would be as easy to barbecue an ox on ice as to get up any excitement, or develop any enthusiasm for John Sherman."

THE Massachusetts Democrats are giving their excellent ticket so cordial a support as to seriously discourage General Butler. The General succeeded in selecting the Republican candidate for Governor, but the Democratic nominee is the last man whom he would have named for that position. Butler's prospects are not cheering.

THE Bridgeport Farmer thinks that altogether the sharpest move yet made by Secretary Sherman in his Presidential game is the organization of a Southern Republican Executive Committee. It will, says the Farmer, effect Southern solidity in the National Convention—a phase of the "solid South" to which he does not object. Thus backed, he can at least dictate the Republican ticket if he fails to secure the first place himself.

A LONG standing order of the Post-office Department has required that all postal cards having any portion of the message written on their face should be treated as unmailable. First Assistant Postmaster General Tyner rescinded this order to the extent of holding that such writing shall not render them unmailable per se, nor prevent their being forwarded unless it makes the address illegible. The public are cautioned, however, that by writing any portion of the message on the face they will incur a risk of the cards being missent or delayed.

WILL those Republican journals that are so earnestly demanding an increase of the army undertake to explain why it is that, while it costs us $40,000,000 or more per annum to keep twenty-five thousand enlisted men, Great Britain maintains a standing army of one hundred and thirty-three thousand men for $65,000,000 a year? It will not do to say that difference in pay causes this disparity. The pay-roll of our enlisted men is but a trivial proportion of the entire cost. Let us have a reasonable explanation, if such a thing be possible—and it is possible.

As important elections in Northern States are pending, we need not be surprised to learn from Washington that fearful collisions are daily taking place in Georgia between illicit distillers and the revenue officers, and that requisitions for arms and ammunition are made, in anticipation of a formidable and bloody insurrection. Sensible people of the North are, however, beginning to understand this method of bloody-shirt campaigning.—Savannah Morning News.

And that is where you are mistaken; it is the internal improvement appropriations that are bothering the readers of the Tribune and Trade Circulars at present. It is perfectly outrageous to put the South on a firm financial basis by granting aid for improvements and thereby giving it a chance to help bear the weight of the tax burden.

THE Springfield Republican on Tuesday morning published the following, which shows how the result was regarded in Massachusetts:

It ought not to be forgotten by those interested in politics not that one party or the other may divide the offices, but that government by the people should be administered for the benefit of the people, that the election in Ohio to-day decides no great and vital question. It sets no key-note. It decides no party policy. Whatever the result may be, no great national issue will be closed or opened. It might have been; the Republican party, with the splendid success of resumption behind it, might have outlined a great policy for the future. It has not. It has chosen to appear as the party of a section, to rest its claims to support on its ability to keep the Democratic party from doing harm, to be a mere political breakwater.

Too Much Attention to John Kelly.

Ex-Governor Horatio Seymour, who was in Elmira, N. Y., Monday, stated to a reporter that he was paying little attention to politics, his health not permitting him to take any active interest in the present campaign. "As regards Mr. Robinson," said Mr. Seymour, "I favor his re election, and I believe that Democrats generally will fall into line before election day in his support. In my opinion too much attention has been paid Mr. Kelly in this canvass. His opponents have been induced to make him a too prominent issue in this contest, while it would be better, perhaps, to have ignored matters of a personal nature, and sought to have brought the party up to a united support of the ticket by enjoining steadfast adherence to party principles and candidates which successfully represented them. As to the result of the election, I cannot, of course, speak with any degree of certainty but, from what I have learned in my recent trip, I regard the outlook as favorable for the Democratic ticket."

The Idea of the Ute Warriors.

Denver Tribune.

Piah, one of the chiefs supposed to be engaged in the present outbreak, has been to Washington. One cold day Governor McCook came into his office and found Piah hugging a stove. Thinking it a good chance to deliver a lesson to the Indian, he said: "Piah, why don't you Indians plow, and raise crops, and build houses? You ought to work. If you did you would not have to come here to borrow my fire, but could buy fire of your own. Why don't you work like white men?"

Piah straightened up at once and proceeded to make a speech. "Me great warrior," said he. "Warriors no plow. Me go to Washington and see John Grant." (The Indians all call Grant "John.") "John Grant great warrior. He no work. He no plow. Me see John Grant's squaw. She no work either, too. Great warriors never work. Tell you what do. You say to John Grant he come here and go with me. We go out and fight 'Rapahoes and Cheyennes, and kill plenty braves, and get plenty squaws. Then squaws work, and me and John Grant have bully good time. No work—no plow—no nothing."

Whether the proposition was ever forwarded to Grant we do not know.

General Fremont's Scheme Derided

General George Stoneman derides General Fremont's scheme for turning the waters of the Colorado into the desert basin of California and Arizona. He says that, presuming the connecting canal to be 1,000 feet wide and ten feet deep, and running at five miles an hour, it would take 200 years to fill the basin. After being filled it would, he asserts, require an additional cutting of the same depth and 250 feet wide to compensate for evaporation.

"Don't Know Half Their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B., Rochester, N. Y. See other column.

VEGETINE.

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

H. R STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

The most Healing, Soothing and Refreshing External Application in the World.

It rapidly heals Ulcers, Old Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Itching Piles and other Itching affections that have been the torture of a lifetime, thus affording unspeakable gratification to thousands; Burns, Scalds, Wounds and Fester; all Itchings and Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and all Affections of the Scalp, including Loss of Hair. Nothing like it has ever been known to the most intelligent physicians. It has swept a host of poisonous remedies out of existence. It is revolutionary in its composition and mode of treatment and succeeds in curing every external affection. At every stage it is ably assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, which is a part of itself medicinally and at the same time the most delightfully fragrant and refreshing Toilet, Bath, and Nursery Soap in existence.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a powerful purifying agent and liver stimulant, should be taken to neutralize and resolve away blood poisons, caused by the virus of scrofula, cancer, canker, malarial or contagious diseases, which maintain and foster diseases, which maintain and foster diseases of the skin and scalp.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum,

For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and to it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some or e similarly afflicted, and I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,
A. D. BAKER, Ticket Agent C. S. R. R.

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned dollar I was given a trial of your CUTICURA, and I, THANK God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like that.

You may put this in the paper and welcome, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH BUKLEY.
LITTLETON, N. H., May 30, 1878.

W. B. Isaacs, T. D. Neal, P. V. Gaines, John D. Regnault, P. W. Grubb, J. T. Brown, and J. M. Neal, of the Planters' Tobacco Warehouse, Danville, Va., are also in the city.

Polk Miller, of the well known firm of Polk Miller & Co., druggists of Richmond, is in attendance on the Fair.

J. C. Dowd, Southern agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., is in the city looking after the interests of his popular road.

Frank Harris, Esq., of the Wilmington Review, E. H. McLaughlin, Esq., of the Concord People's Paper, and Walter C. Boylan, Esq., of the Monroe Enquirer, are in the city.

East Lynne.

This popular play, and still more popular rendition of the same, by the Templetons at Tucker Hall last evening, was most cordially received.

As remarked in yesterday's issue, if there is anything that "Raleigh,s Favorite"—Alice Vane—more excels in than another, it is in her par excellant rendition of her dual character in this play. One has to be devoid of a soul indeed who fails to feel emotion at the death-bed scene, where "Janie," (Miss Fay) her daughter, dies, and she herself expires with a broken heart.

Mr. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller certainly render their parts to perfection; in fact, the oftener one sees them the oftener they want to see them.

Miss Fay, as usual and alway, had the most excellent conception of the character she represented, and the appreciation of the audience of her efforts to please them was fully attested by the many encores she received.

In the after-piece, "Aimee," that trump of trumps, John Templeton, came in as the "Dutch," and the audience were kept in a constant side-splitting laughter throughout the whole act.

This company having stood the test of years in the opera and drama, and having played more nights than any other company that ever appeared in Raleigh, may be pronounced the very best organization that visits the South. Last night the applause was generous, but richly deserved. The recalls for Alice Vane and "Fay" and the favorites of the company showed the appreciation of our people for the standard company of the South.

To-night the Burgers, with whom is Sol Smith Russell, not unknown to and not without a reputation among this people, appear at Tucker Hall under Templeton's management. If you want to have a real good time holding your sides while you laugh yourself out of your coat almost, why, just attend with ears erect at Tucker Hall to-night.

Metropolitan Hall Last Night.

The Adah Richmond Troupe rendered the Chimes of Normandy and Pinafore at this hall last evening. Of course Miss Richmond, as usual, was inimitable in the character of Josephine, Mr. Armand delighted his hearers by his exquisite voice. Mr. Sturges was as good a Dick Deadeye as we ever saw. Mr. Barnes gave a capital rendering of his solo in the second act. Mr. Vincent and Mr. Kent both were worthy representatives of their respective characters. The choruses were very fine and sung with great precision. Much of the success of the whole we accredit to the fact that the musical director, Mr. Carl Von Schiller, was the first to bring out Pinafore in New York, a fact that is not generally known. Mr. Schiller is a thorough musician and an experienced operatic conductor, he deserves much credit for his untiring energy and the marked ability with which he conducts the whole; it must be remembered that the success of an opera depends in a great measure upon an efficient leader.

W. C. & A. B. Stronach are to-day receiving a lot of the justly celebrated "Enterprise" brand of roasted coffee, retail price twenty-five cents per pound, and a liberal margin to dealers. Mr. Cobb, of Barkley & Hasson, the roasters of this brand, will, at the Fair grounds to-day, distribute three thousand samples. Try it. *

Consumption Cured.

An old physician retired from practice had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the fomula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B F. Woodward P. E., Va. Conf. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by Pescud, Lee & Co., and
